

The Gods Are MADlib!

ZEUS

Here's how to play: have one person read the types of words called for in the blank spaces, while another person (or group of people) suggests words to fill in the spaces.

Now you've created a brand-new story! Read it aloud.

Kronos and His _____ noun

Kronos and Rhea ruled over the _____. _____ was in their power. One day, when Rhea was about to have her first _____, her mother told Kronos that _____ of his children would become the ruler of the _____. Kronos was not _____. He decided if his _____ were going to usurp his throne, he would _____ them first. So he did! Rhea was not too _____ about this, and she managed to save her last _____, Zeus. He grew up in a _____, hidden from his _____. But when he was old enough, he put on a _____ and made his father vomit up all his brothers and _____.

His plan worked! Zeus and his _____ were reunited.

The _____ of the Olympians
noun

Zeus was very _____ with his _____, Kronos, because he had eaten Zeus and emotion family member all his brothers and _____. And Kronos was very _____ with Zeus and his family member emotion _____ and sisters because they had _____ from him. Both Zeus and Kronos wanted family member verb to rule over the _____, but only _____ of them could. So there was a fight! Zeus had his place number siblings on his side, while Kronos had his – the Titans. Both sides were evenly matched in the

_____, until Zeus traveled to the _____ and got more _____ from the Cyclops.
noun place noun

Then he and his _____ and sisters were able to _____ their father and rule
family member verb

over the world in _____.
emotion